

Sparbanken Skaraborg

Sparbanken Skaraborg has mandated Swedbank as Bookrunner for its inaugural SEK senior unsecured bond transaction under their newly established Medium Term Note Programme. The expected volume on the contemplated transaction is SEK 300 million and takes place following an investor meeting in Stockholm on the 21th of November, subject to market conditions.

Sparbanken Skaraborg is a locally based savings bank operating in Skara, Vara, Götene and Essunga municipalities. As per 30 June 2017 Sparbanken Skaraborg had a lending of SEK 7.6 bn, an equity ratio of 27.3% and CET1 ratio of 23.5%. The bank is fully owned by Sparbanksstiftelsen Skaraborg (est. 2000) and has roots in the former Skaraborgs Läns Sparbank.
